Titan Holiday Classic Scores Big with Top Teams

Antelope High School Hosts the 7th Annual Basketball Tournament on Dec. 10-12

Rocklin, CA - Dec. 1- The steady dribble of the ball hitting the hardwood, the swishing of the net and the roar of the crowd set the scene for the exciting 7th Annual Titan Holiday Classic Basketball Tournament hosted by Antelope High School and Placer Valley Tourism. This three-day, crowd-pleasing event will take place on Dec. 10-12 and boasts eight highly competitive teams competing with their freshmen, junior varsity and varsity teams.

Antelope, Bella Vista, Davis, Kennedy and Woodcreek high schools are the local teams that have secured a spot. Out of the Bay Area, the impressive and always competitive teams from College Park High School in Walnut Creek and Saint Mary's College High School from Berkeley will be bringing their A-game. Last but certainly not least is Tenison Woods University High School from Australia, who will have traveled more than 8,000 miles to compete in this popular and well-respected winter tournament.

Titan Head Coach, Rob Richards, explains that Tenison Woods competes every other year as they have to fund-raise to cover the expenses a trip of this magnitude entails. The Antelope High School players and coaches host the Australia team and it really has become a wonderful experience for everyone involved.

Coach Richards is thrilled to be a part of such an incredible event and bring this level of competition to his Titan's home court. "The quality of basketball will be top-notch and we also have Access Local TV broadcaster Will James covering it on the Friday games which makes it very exciting for the players and parents," added Richards.

Not only is the Titan Holiday Classic one of the best high school basketball tournaments in Northern California but it also provides a chance to see future NCAA stars in action. Kai Tease and Jordan Brown will add an element of excitement with their standout skills. Tease, a senior point guard from Antelope High School, just signed with Howard University and Brown, a 6-foot-9 sophomore for Woodcreek's varsity team, is ranked in the top 3 nationally for 2018 prospects and always fun to watch!

The action all takes place at Antelope High School located at 7801 Titan Drive in Antelope. So mark your calendars and come check out these amazing basketball match-ups and watch history in the making!
