Football University Championship Showcases Top Youth Football Talent on Dec. 2-5

The Path to Naples Has a Scheduled Stop in Placer Valley for the West Region Championship Games

Rocklin, CA - Nov. 28, 2016-Placer Valley Tourism is thrilled to have been selected to host the Football University (FBU) National Championship West region that will take place on Dec. 2-5. There are 24 all-star youth teams competing from 6th, 7th and 8th grade that will take to the fields in hopes of advancing onto the National Championships on Dec. 17 in Naples, Florida.

Teams from San Diego, the Central Valley, the Bay Area, Sacramento, Nevada, Oregon and Washington are slated to compete over the course of this four-day regional championship and the games will be played at Rocklin High School and Mahany Park All-Weather Field.

The Path to Naples is the theme of this year's FBU National Championship and stand-out youth football players from coast to coast will be vying to reach that path. The first three rounds will take place across four regional locales - Midwest, West, South and East with 192 teams total battling it out.

"We are thrilled Placer Valley is the West Region host," commented Douglas Berman, Chairman of All American Games (AAG), the organization that owns and produces the FBU National Championships. "We know that our youth athletes and their families will have an amazing time there, and the facilities and venues available are world-class."

Serving as the perfect ending to the youth football season, this is one event you truly won't want to miss. Games start at 8 a.m. on Friday and on Saturday and Sunday they will kick-off at 10 a.m. Come check out the action at Rocklin High School located at 5301 Victory Lane in Rocklin or 1545 Pleasant Grove Blvd. in Roseville for the Mahany Park games. The championship games, which will be played solely at the Mahany All-Weather Field on Monday, Dec. 5 are slotted for 10 a.m., noon and 2 p.m.
